The Conver-
sationalist NL

Akosua Naana Lexis Obenewaa Opoku-Agyemang is a highly regarded Life Coach, Brand Consultant, Broadcast Journalist, Public Relations Professional, and a Transformational & Powerful Content Speaker. With a mixture of academic and experience background in Broadcast Journalism, Film Directing, Public Relations, Brand & Personality Development, and Life Coaching, Naana has devoted her career to assisting individuals in becoming more effective personalities and career professionals.

In 2012, Naana debuted TheConversationalistNL, a brand that caters to the needs of individuals pursuing personal and professional development. The flagship initiative of the brand, the Global Icon Workshop SERIES renamed now as Project U Conference and related activities, which has evolved into a global platform of hope and inspiration, assisting individuals in developing their personal identities, honing their talents, and expanding their influence and knowledge.

Through her company, Conversationalist Listening Ear (CLE) Consult, Naana has displayed throughout her career her dedication to human development as well as committing many social work activities through CSR activities. Her company's CSR renovates guidance and counseling centers in schools and communities where the Tour team visits, thereby providing valuable assistance to those in need. Additionally, CLE Consult prioritizes the development of transformational leaders through seminars and events.
